Q1. Think back to your school or college days. What language was mostly used in your classes?

☐ Bangla only ☐ English only ☐ A mix of both

Q2. Where did you grow up and go to school/college? (City, town, or village?)

Q3. These days at university, how often do you actually speak English, not just read or write it, but speak out loud?

☐ Rarely or never ☐ Sometimes (a few times a week) ☐ Almost every day

a. In what situations do you tend to speak it? (Presentations, group work, with teachers?)

Q4. On a scale of 1 to 10, how confident do you feel speaking English in front of other people right now?

Confidence: (Not at all) 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
(Completely confident)

a. Has this score changed since you started university?

Q5. Tell about a time/experience where you had to speak in front of people.

- How anxious did you feel at that moment?

Anxiety: (Completely calm) 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 (Most anxious I've felt)

Q6. What specifically made it feel that way was it the audience, the language, the topic, or something else?

Q7. After that experience, did you feel more or less like speaking English in the future?

Q8. Do you practice speaking English? if yes, then how and with humans or tools?

Q9. Have you ever used an app, website, or tool specifically to practice speaking English? Which ones have you tried?

Q11. How long did you use that app?

Q12. Did you like the design/features of the app/tool that you used? Tell about the best two.

Q13. What about that app/tool design/feature made you feel like its hard/confusing to use?

Q14. If you could choose right now practicing with a real person versus practicing with an app or AI which, would you pick, and why?

Q15. When you finish a practice session, what kind of feedback makes you want to come back and do it again?

Q16. Have you ever received feedback that felt too harsh, too technical, or just unhelpful from a person or a tool?

Q17. Compared to speaking English in a real classroom or in front of people, how does it feel to speak to an AI? Is it more relaxed, more awkward, or something else?

Q18. Have you ever felt shy, judged, or embarrassed while speaking to an AI even knowing it's not a real person?

Q19. Does speaking with AI feel natural to you, or does it still feel a bit artificial?

Q20. If you could change one thing about AI speaking tools to make them feel safer or more comfortable for someone like you, what would it be?

Q21. At the start of this interview, you rated your English speaking confidence. Now that we've talked through your experiences would you change that number? Why or why not?

Revised Confidence: (Not at all) 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
(Completely confident)
